Unique Menu's

First impressions are among the most important statements we can ever make to other people about ourselves and our business.

No one knows this fact better than the restaurant industry. Presentation is the key that says you are the best and even before dinners are seated they have already formed an opinion regarding the establishment.

The pristine table cloths. The sparkling silverware. The crystal clean wine glasses and not forgetting the efficient and courteous manner of your staff.

The next very important impression arrives with the presentation of the menu and wine list.

This is where we can help.

Bardel bookbinding's Unique menu covers will present to your clientele the perfect first time impression of style and class.

Produced in an A4 format from a wide range of beautiful materials including real leather and genuine suede. The final product includes moiré silk linings and brass screw fittings that will take either our specially designed leaves or conventional A4 PVC pockets. All the gold or blind embossing on the front cover will be created at your discretion, in fact it is your choice from start to finish. All we will do is to expertly create your unique menu.

Presentation is at the core of our business in the bookbinding industry and with clients that include members of the Royal family, VIP's and prestigious persons you can be sure of the very best in service and attention to detail.
